

A New Interfaith Opportunity

Sacramento Area League of Associated Muslims (SALAM) invites you to an event introducing Walk with Me by Salaam Shalom Educational Foundation in Collaboration with Rudolf Steiner College Early Childhood Department on Thursday, January 13, from 5:30pm until 7:30pm.

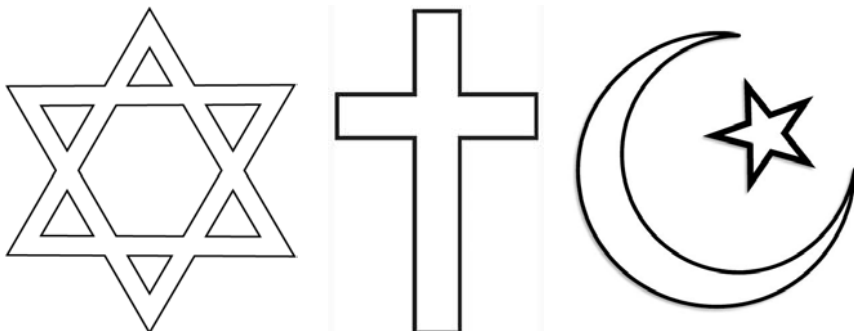

Walk with Me is an interfaith initiative of Salaam Shalom Educational Foundation (SSEF) for children; to promote respectful listening, mutual understanding, and the honoring of traditions between children and families in diverse communities in both Sacramento and the Middle East using educational models based on the humanistic teaching methods of Waldorf education.

An evening of interfaith activities for Jewish, Christian and Muslim families with children to get to know one another hosted by SALAM in collaboration with Congregation Beth Shalom and St. Mark's United Methodist Church and the broader interfaith community; facilitated by SSEF's Sacramento Branch. The Program includes crafts shop with activities for 3 to 7-years-old; older children are welcome to observe. During the crafts shop activities, for adults there will be information session on the Walk with Me program. All of this will be taking place on Thursday, January 13, from 5:30pm until 7:30pm. This event will be at the Sacramento Area League of Associated Muslims (SALAM) located at 4541 College Oak Drive Sacramento, CA 95841 (Across from American River College).

SSEF is a not-for-profit, non-political interfaith educational organization. Learn more about Salaam Shalom Educational Foundation at www.sseffoundation.org.
